During her eldest daughter's first pregnancy, Queen Victoria's letters to her are very blunt and hardly "Victorian". Shortly after her young daughter, Vicky, married the future Emperor of Germany in 1858, rumors of a first grandchild for Queen Victoria began to fly. In two letters of April, 1858, Queen Victoria opines the wish that her seventeen year old daughter will have some time to enjoy life with her husband before babies begin to come:
